LATHER, TOOLS AND MACHINERY—To be SOLD at private sale, by order of Assignees, at the Metropolitan Works, No. 525 East 12th St., near Avenue C.

MONEY HOW TO MAKE IT—Buy the Right of MORRILL'S PATENT CLOTHES DRYER for a State or county. It protects the grass plots; saves washing, or shoveling paths in Winter, and elevates the cuts out of the way. Retail price, $10. Send for a circular to C. A. DURGIN, No. 332 Broadway, Room No. 3.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.—SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until the 21st inst., at 12 o'clock, noon, for DREDGING 500 ft., adjoining the Central Park, between the 5th and 6th Aves., to an additional width of 40 ft., the present grade being about 60 ft. in width, and the width will be increased to 90 ft. in 18 months. The work will be commenced by the 1st day of March, and completed by the 1st day of July, 1859.

Monthly estimates will be made as the work progresses, and 1 percent. will be paid on the contract price, with interest until the work is completed.

Specifications of the manner of performing the work, together with any information desired, will be furnished at this office between the hours of 12 m. and 2 p.m.

Proposals should be accompanied with the names of two responsible persons as security for the faithful performance of the work.

The Commissioners of the Central Park receive the right to reject any proposal which is not in accordance with the terms of the bid.

For further information, address "Proposals for Widening 5th Street," and addressed to the Commissioners of the Central Park, Feb. 18, 1859. FRED. L. OWSTED, Architect-in-Chief.

PARTNERSHIP OF OTHERWISE.—An opportunity, which can only very seldom occur, to engage in a FIRST-CLASS BUSINESS with an article unique in every particular, and which can be sold at a high profit, for small and unlimited quantities, at a profit of two to three cents per pound. There will be no risk and no competition. Only the most respectable parties will be treated with. Address EDWARD CREESEMAN, Post-office.

PATENT RIGHT (for 12 years) for SALESHAWATHAWAY'S LEVER EXTENSION SHOT-CHARGER, by which the differentiated loads can be made to enter the gun more easily, and the bullet is fired with greater force than before. For details, see SALESHAWATHAWAY'S PATENT, for the above for the United States, France and England for sale, together or separate. This is a rare opportunity to engage in a very large and extensive business. Apply to J. N. BATHAWAY, No. 86 Bedford St., N.Y.

RARE CHANCE for a PROFITABLE INVESTMENT—A PARTIAL INTEREST in a newly-invented article of daily use, which is now in great demand for sale, and very remunerative. Details, also, INTEREST in FOREIGN PATENTS, if desired.

MCLEAN & CO., Room 29, No. 12 Wall St. (from 12 to 2 p.m.)

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Commissioners, Committee on Finance, of the City of Madison, in the County of Dane, Wisconsin, of Green Bay, on the 25th day of February, 1859, for the sum of $6000 for the repair of the wooden bridge across the Fox River, between the 2nd and 3rd Streets, in the city of Madison, for one year, payable semi-annually at the same place, with interest at 6 percent. It is required that the bridge be repaired so as to be safe for the passage of vehicles, and that it be made to last for a year without charge. The bridge will be allowed for one year without charge. The sum of $6000 will be paid to the contractor, by whom the work will be performed, on the first day of April, 1859.

The Committee reserves the right to reject any oral or written proposal offered, which is not in the public interest to do so.
